Staff Report: Recent events include the Community Art Days in Bishop and Lone Pine, and participation in the Chocolate Art Walk.

Upcoming events a concert by Canadian group West My Friend on November 15th and Street of Lights on December 1st.

Palisades Glacier High School used our building in October for their annual talent show, and a 4-H group will be using it for theater classes on Thursdays for 5 weeks. Friends of the Inyo will be using our space on Nov. 30 for the Back Country Film Festival. This is in addition to ongoing yoga and Zumba classes.

Our new employee, Rachael Gabriel started work on October 2nd and training is going great.

Ryan will be leaving at the end of February. He is going to hold a sound workshop for a few selected employees and volunteers on November 15th before our concert so we can hopefully get some people trained for concert sound in the future. Erin hosted three art docent trainings in Bishop and Lone Pine.

Lynn will be traveling to Sacramento for their annual conference on December 10-11.

We have kicked off our after school art classes, 2 classes being offered currently – 2 times per week each, with more set to begin soon.

The California Arts Council has kicked off their grant season with 14 grant opportunities. We will be applying for two or three. Deadlines have been moved up by a couple of months so staff will be working on grant applications in the coming months. We've received our Inyo County GIS contract, returned it along with an invoice.

Next meeting date – To be determined 137 S. Main Street Bishop, CA 93514
